

7th National Indigenous Physical Activity & Wellness

Conference

Sponsorship Package

Conference Information

You are invited in joining us and other leaders in sharing best practices at the nation's largest conference on physical activity for First Nations, Métis and Inuit communities.

The Indigenous Physical Activity & Cultural Circle values physical activity as a tool for health and wellness within our Indigenous communities. We encourage all forms of physical activity – fitness, sports, recreation, and traditional activities

The intent of this national conference is to provide a networking and educational opportunity for all individuals interested in promoting physical activity.

We are reaching out to institutions, businesses and organizations such as yours to support this exciting networking event. This package outlines detailed sponsorship information and benefits.

We welcome the opportunity to discuss this exciting networking event and the sponsorship opportunities.

We look forward to hearing from you!

The Indigenous Physical Activity & Cultural Circle (IPACC) is a network for Indigenous people who are involved in Sports, Recreation, Fitness, and Traditional Activities. IPACC is a registered non-profit organization that aims to establish and expand relationships between individuals engaged in physical activity by improving access to resources, and promote exposure to health and wellness opportunities. IPACC's mission is to create a community of mentors, leaders, participants, and supporters who promote physical activity as a way to health and wellness.

IPACC is hosting this annual conference to provide a networking and education opportunity. The 2019 National Indigenous Physical Activity & Wellness conference will feature contributed paper sessions, debates, panel discussions, and poster sessions in the interest of Indigenous sports and recreation, fitness, and traditional activities and the benefits that stem from these activities.

We warmly welcome the opportunity to discuss the various levels of sponsorship available and answer any questions you may have. All contributions are to be made out to "Indigenous Physical Activity & Cultural Circle" and an official logo is required for media promotion.
